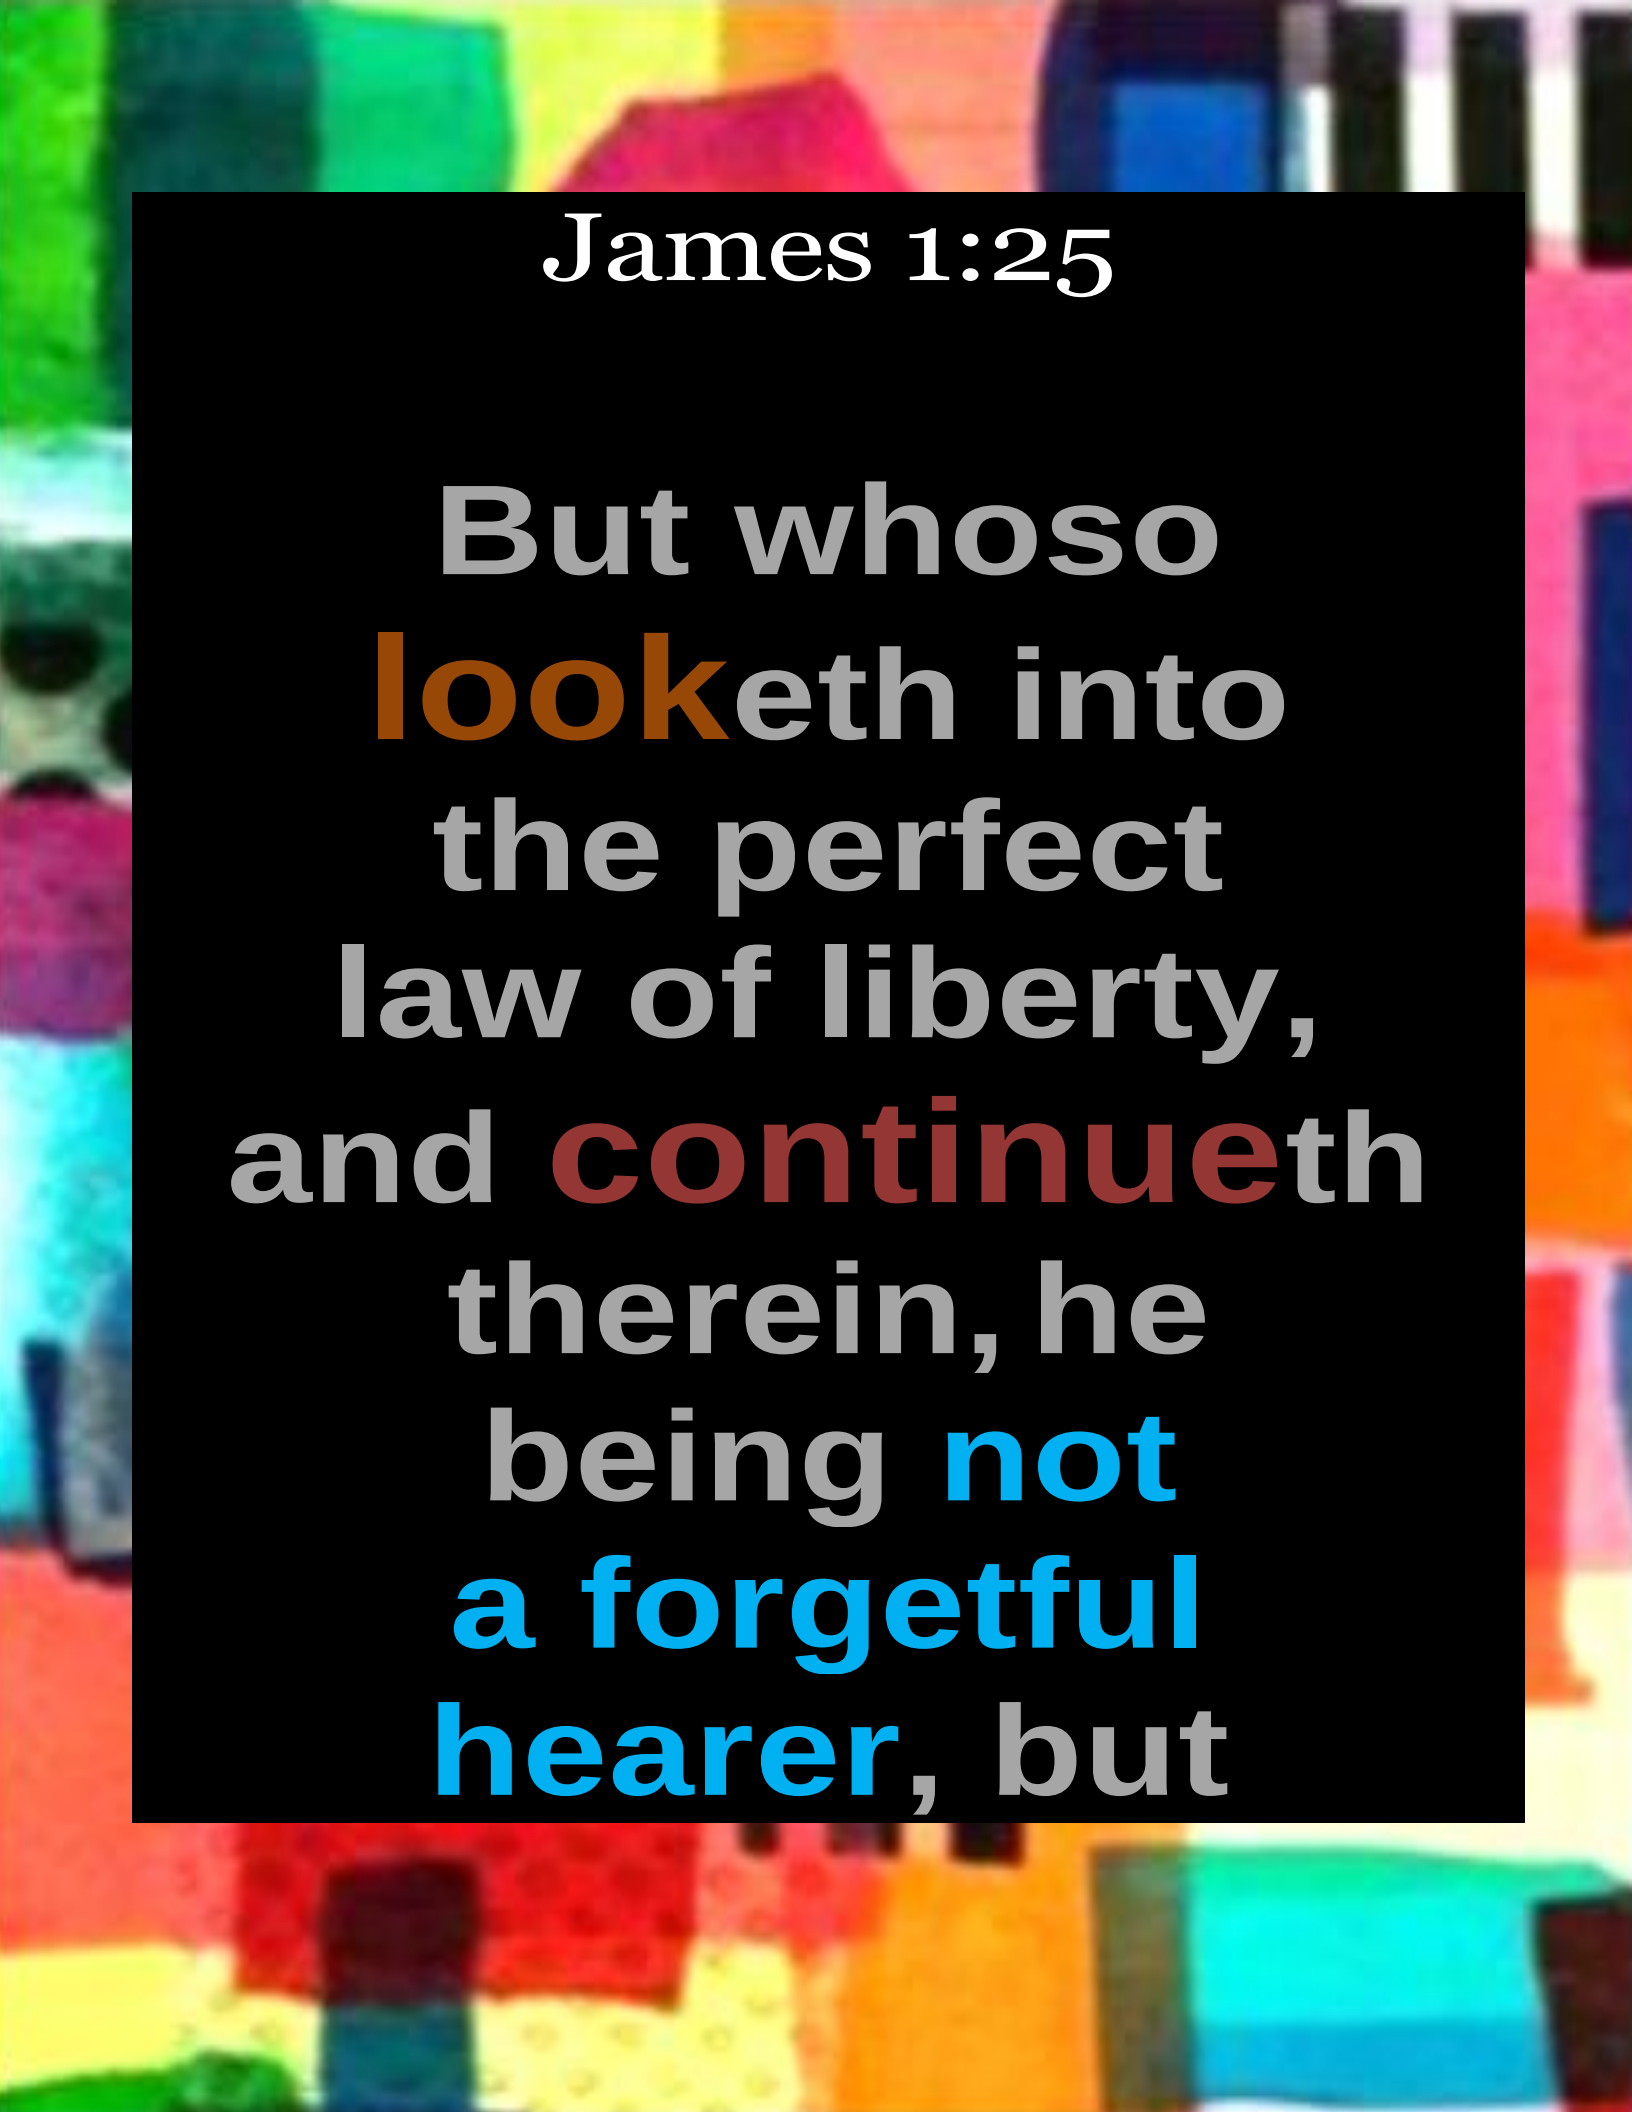
The Perfect Law of Liberty



James 1:25
But whoso looketh into the perfect law of liberty, and continueth therein, he being not a forgetful hearer, but a doer of

the work,
this man
shall be blessed in his deed.

The Perfect Law of Liberty

The perfect law of liberty? What is that?

It could be described as doing the right and good thing because you want to, rather than because you feel you have to do it.

It's an exercise
in the freedom
of faith.
It's when you know that even when you try
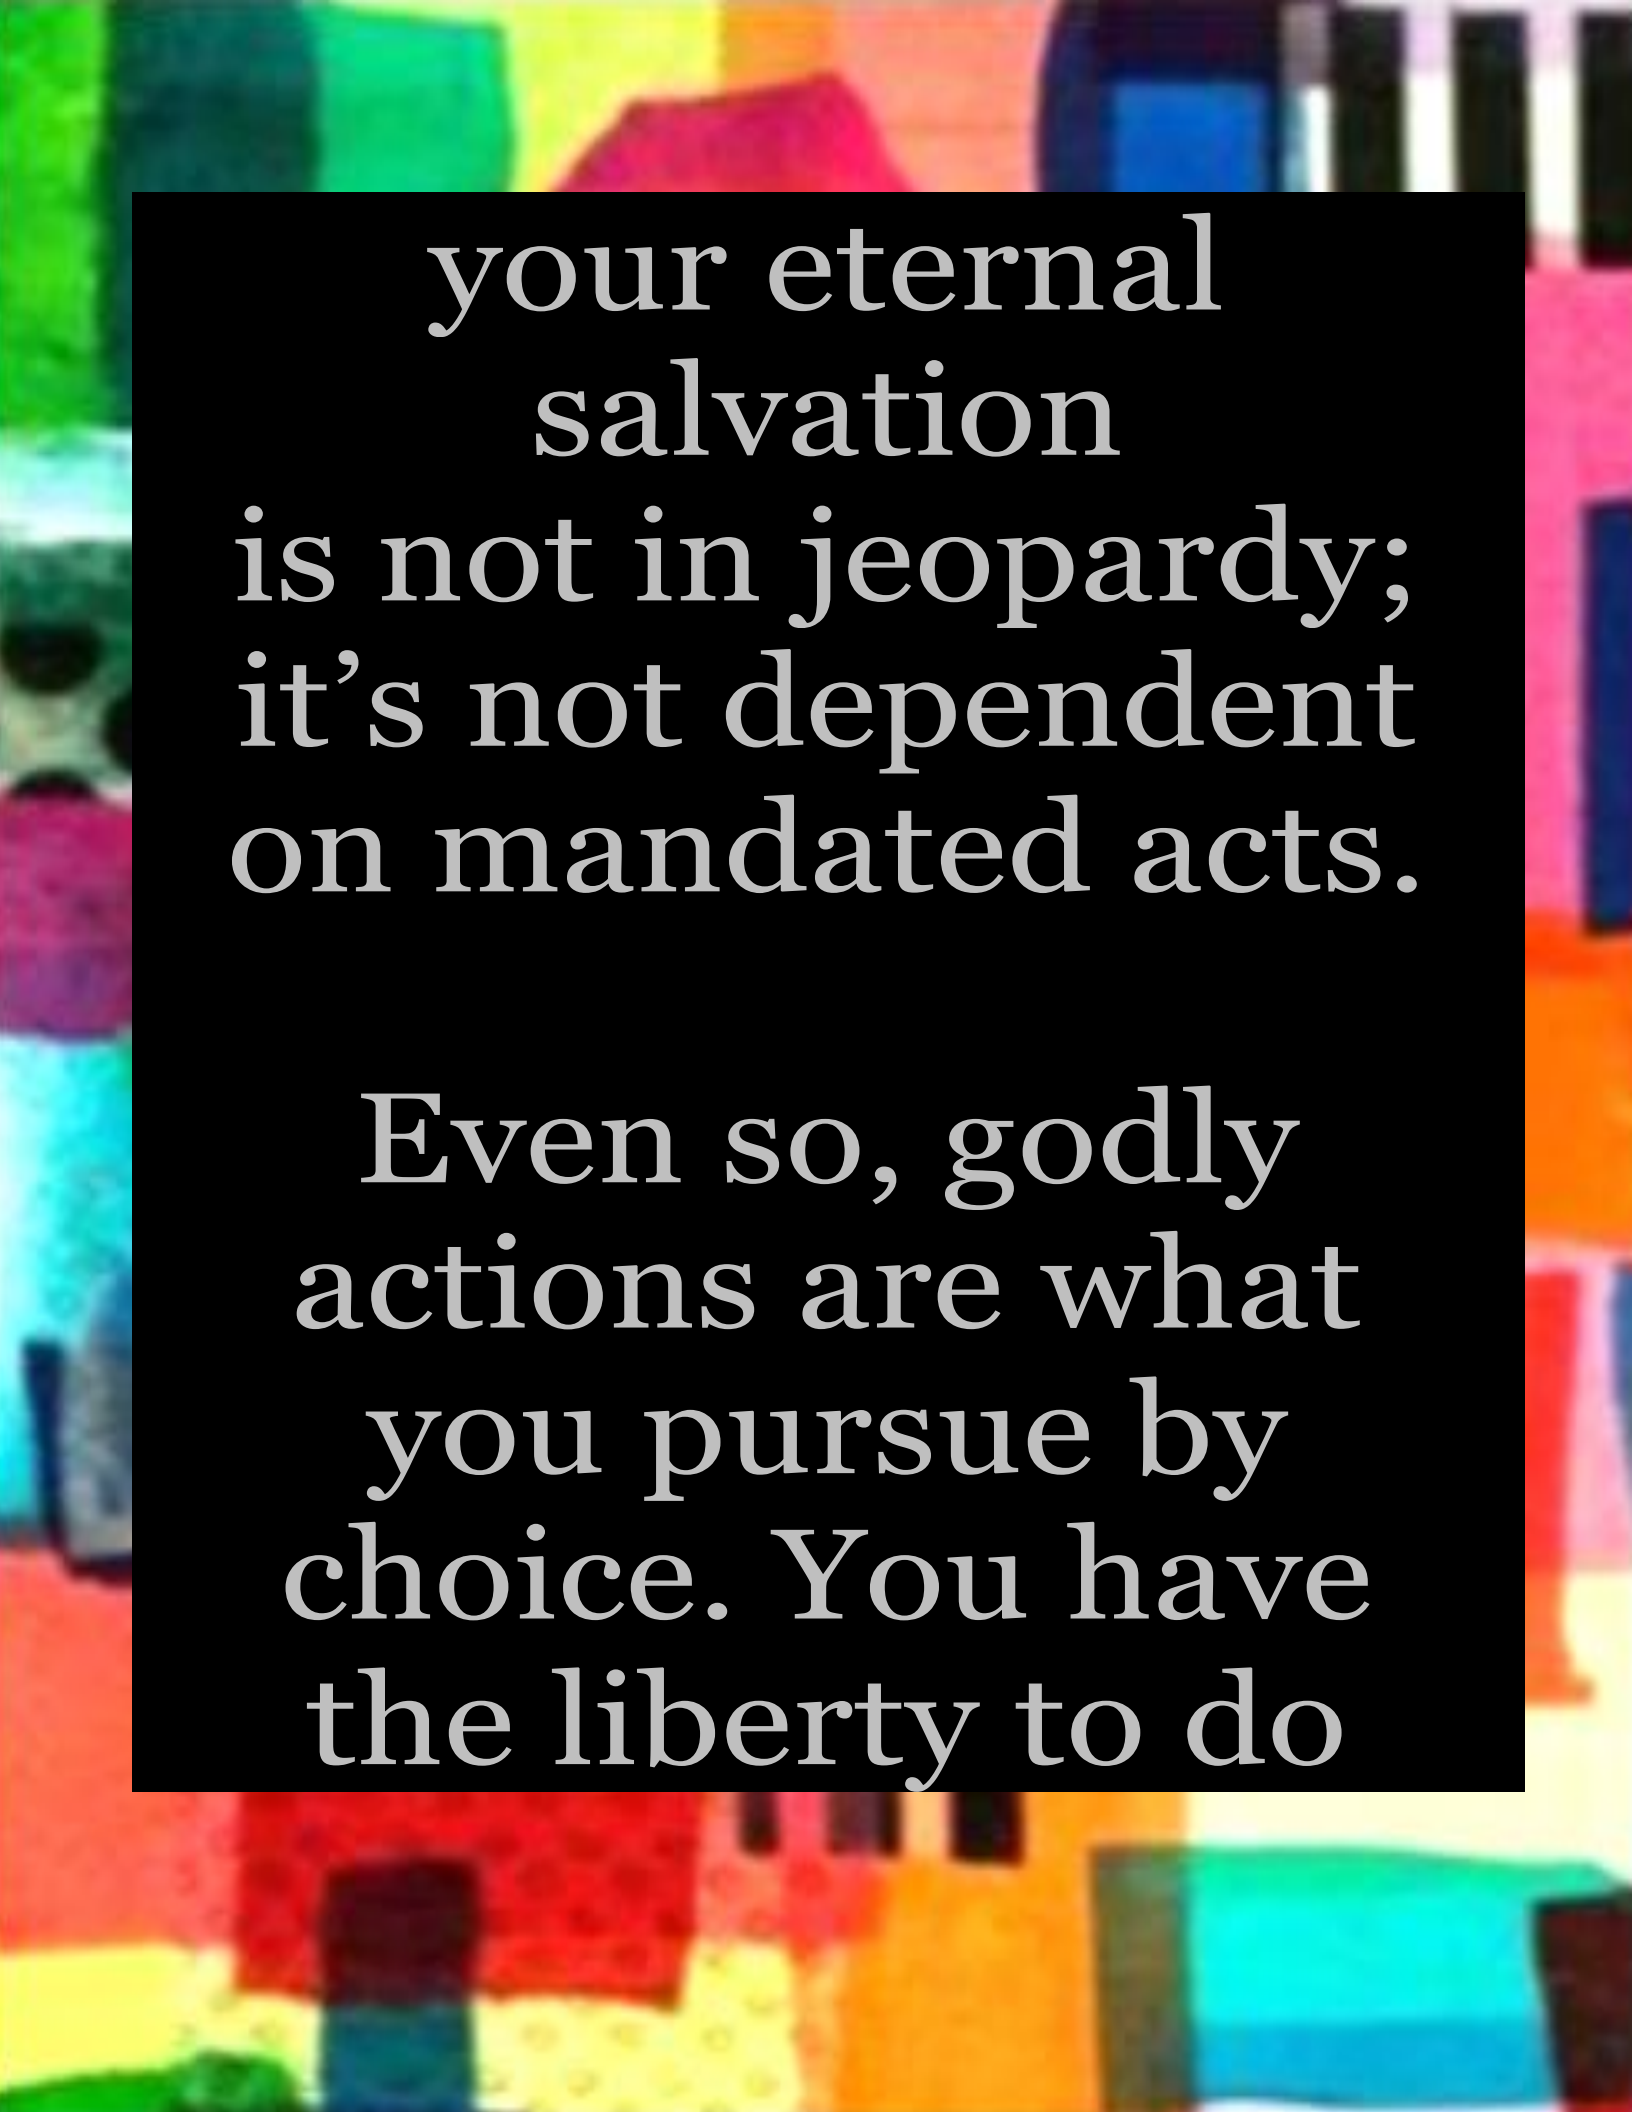
your best
but still fail,



your eternal
salvation
is not in jeopardy;
it's not dependent
on mandated acts.
Even so, godly
actions are what you pursue by choice. You have the liberty to do

one thing or another thing,
but out of love
for God and for others, you don't let your liberty
become a stumbling block
to others.
Looking into the perfect law of liberty is to study what the perfect law of liberty really means.

It's to learn the importance of it, and to remember it by living the right way on a day-to-day basis.
